

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 28, 2021

Cowichan Tribes, Ladysmith, North Cowichan, and CVRD Recreation Centres open cooling centres

DUNCAN, BC - With another heat wave anticipated, cooling centres will be opened at several locations:

- Kerry Park Recreation Centre, 1035 Shawnigan-Mill Bay Road, Mill Bay – Thursday, July 29 – Saturday, July 31 from NOON to 8 pm.
- Cowichan Community Centre, 2687 James Street, Duncan – Thursday, July 29 – Saturday, July 31 from NOON to 8 pm.
- Lake Cowichan Centennial Hall, 309 South Shore Road, Lake Cowichan – Thursday, July 29 – Saturday, July 31 from NOON to 8 pm.
- Frank Jameson Community Centre, 810 - 6th Avenue, Ladysmith – Thursday, July 29 – Saturday, July 31 from NOON to 8 pm.
- Siem Lelum Gymnasium, 5574 River Road, Duncan – Thursday, July 29 – Saturday, July 31 from NOON to 8 pm.
- Crofton Community Centre, 8104 Musgrave Street, Crofton - Saturday, July 31 from NOON to 8 pm.
- Chemainus Seniors Centre, 9824 Willow Street, Chemainus - Saturday, July 31 from NOON to 8 pm.

Each facility will provide a cool space to provide respite from external temperatures. Water will be provided.

The Cowichan communities would like to thank Emergency Management BC for assistance and support.

- 30 -

For more information, please contact:

John Elzinga
General Manager, Community Services
Cowichan Valley Regional District
250.746.2520
john.elzinga@cvrd.bc.ca